

JOSUÉ'S UPDATE

Greetings from Guatemala

It brings me joy to be able to write to you with updates about my ministries in Guatemala. This year has been busy for me as I've been teaching at Vida y Esperanza and leading a youth discipleship program both at school and at my church in San Bartolomé Milpas Altas. God has blessed abundantly in these ministries and I'm looking forward to seeing what He has planned for the rest of this year and next.

Vida y Esperanza

The 2015 school year will be ending in October and it's been another busy season.

In August, we held our Parent's Night. The student worship team performed for the parents and I had the privilege to sing with them. Later, we distributed student grades to the parents as they visited the classrooms. I enjoy it when I have the opportunity to speak with each of the parents and share the successes of their children.

I continue to teach English to the students in pre-K to third grade and I teach accounting to the middle school students. I am also involved in the worship ministry as well. Each morning we begin classes with devotional time, but once a month we hold a school-wide chapel. Many times I am asked to teach the devotional based on the month's topic.

The Lord is also continuing to stretch and challenge me in my discipleship to the students. As I pray for His leading and guiding in the upcoming year, He is beginning to open doors for new discipleship opportunities in the school. I'm excited as we wrap up this school year and begin preparations for next. God will be in all the planning and it's my heart and desire to give all the glory to Him.

Youth Discipleship and More

For many years I have been the worship leader at my church in San Bartolomé Milpas Altas. Music is a passion of mine and God has blessed me with this gift so I may bring Him glory and praise. For the last few years, God has placed the desire in my heart to take a more active role in our youth ministry, to disciple, minister and mentor the young teens in this town. God continues to move in a mighty way here. Many teens have come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. They have been able to release strongholds, addictions and be freed from abuse. A fire has been lit in San Bartolomé Milpas Altas and I pray a revival is coming soon.

I have also been holding Bible studies with members of the Guatemalan military throughout the city. It's been such a blessing to serve those who protect and serve our country and see them come to know Jesus Christ as their Savior.

Praying with the youth in San Bartolomé Milpas Altas

Prayer Requests

Please continue to keep me in your prayers and specifically:

- That I stay focused on God's plan and leading in my life.
- That He continues to draw the youth of San Bartolomé Milpas Altas to Him and that there is revival not only here, but throughout all of Guatemala.
- For Guatemala, the current president, the incoming president and the country. This is a critical time for Guatemala.
- That He provides the finances for a laptop for my classes and discipleship teaching.
- That He provides finances for speakers and additional sound equipment for youth worship.
